

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 25 June 1959

25X1 1. Mr. Houston talked with Bob Smart, House Armed Services Committee, about [REDACTED] He agreed with our position to stand fast in face of Mr. Carter's action.

2. Delivered to Mr. William Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee, FE Division's papers on letters from Chinese communes and Professor Walker's pamphlets. Darden said he would pass these on to interested committee members.

25X1 4. [REDACTED] met with Mr. Charles Johnson, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee staff; Mr. David Carper, Assistant Legislative Counsel; Mr. Ward Hussey, Assistant Legislative Counsel; Mr. James Dring, House Ways and Means Committee staff; and Dayton Hull, State Department, concerning the proposed amendment to the Internal Revenue Code as set forth in section 527 of H. R. 7758, the Overseas Differentials and Allowances bill. Although the Ways and Means Committee staff representatives had taken strong exception to the present proposal in previous meetings with Mr. Johnson, they appeared very receptive to the briefing provided at this meeting by Mr. Johnson, Mr. Hull and [REDACTED] A report of the final position taken

25X1

MISSING PAGE

Approved For Release 2004/05/13 : CIA-RDP91-00965R000400080049-6

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT MISSING PAGE(S):

Page 2